

CALL FOR PAPERS

Dear Colleagues,

At the outset I thank you all for making this conference successful through your contribution, presence and participation in the deliberations etc. I hope you all might have enjoyed the conference proceeding and brought back sweet memories and useful thoughts for future research activities and collaborations. We have almost finalized the conference recommendations and we will be forwarding it to you all soon.

As per the recommendations and our discussions we are going to bring out a book as a outcome of this conference (exclusive papers relevant to the conference topic) as JNU-UNESCO-ISGSD along from the reputed publisher (most probably through Anamaya publishers New Delhi and Springer , New York as a Joint publication. The editors of the book were AL. Ramanathan (New Delhi), Bhanu Nepune (UNESCO, New Delhi), Prosun Bhattachaya (KTH Sweden), D.M. Alongi (Australia) and T. Dittmar (USA). So I request you to kindly send your full manuscript taking into account following instructions and send me (us) the final paper on or before April 15, 2007 to enable us to publish the book in end of August 2007. Those who have send their paper earlier, may also please revise their manuscripts as per the following instructions. Authors are invited to submit original, unpublished research papers that are not being considered in another forum. All papers selected for publication will be peer-reviewed and will be published in August 2007.
